To Whom It May Concern:

“Whatever you do to the least of your brothers, you do unto me”, says Jesus in the Gospel. This I would say, is the summary of all the charity works of the Sisters of Mary, a religious congregation of Pontifical Approval.

I am sincerely impressed by the growth of their Congregation, the tremendous zeal and fervor of the Sisters and the positive response of all the children under their care in Chalco as well as in Guadalajara. They provide food, clothing, shelter, high-quality academic and technical education, medical and dental services totally free of charge. These children are also being taught with moral and spiritual values entirely necessary to become good Catholics and model citizens of the country.

Since 1990, the Sisters had started their charity works together with the Servant of God, Msgr. Aloysius Schwartz, in Mexico. Many poor children have already been helped and have graduated from their Girlstown and Boystown. At present, they are taking care and educating approximately 3,000 girls in Chalco and 2,000 boys in Guadalajara.

The Sisters also serve the poorest of the poor in the Philippines, Guatemala, Brazil, Korea and recently in Honduras. All their works have been made possible due to the generosity of many people. Therefore, I continue to encourage those who had been supporting them and hope that many more will assist them in their noble mission. I pray that the Lord will always reward them and all their benefactors for serving the poor is also serving our lord Jesus.

Sincerely yours,
